

JANUARY 6, 2019

Welcome to UALC! We're glad you're here.

We invite you to take this home as a prayer guide and use the back for taking notes during the sermon. Please stop by the Connect Center in the lobby if you have any questions or want to learn more about our church.

Additional information and announcements can be found in The Cornerstone, available from ushers, or online at ualc.org/announcements.

Join Us As We Pray For:

Our Heart

Read Matthew 2:1-12: January 6 is The Epiphany of Our Lord, celebrating the revelation of Christ to the world. The mysterious Magi who arrived to worship the Christ Child illustrate God's way - drawing people to Himself (here by a star) and then prompting a response of faith (their long journey to Bethlehem). May God grant us the same grace.

Our People

In the hospital: Sam Short

Home from the hospital or in short-term care: Olivia Cameron

A portion of our members with ongoing health needs: Andy Bell, Lynn Berridge, Gary Holt, Michael Hubbard, Larry Huddleston, Karen Kanning, Joe Kenny, Bob Mathis, Suzanne Wade-Mercer, Karen Miller, Joe and Marilyn Norris

We offer Christian sympathy to: the family and friends of Jean Bower at her death

Our World

Lutheran Bible Translators: Pray for the family of Nathan and Sarah Esala, Bible translators for the Komba people of northern Ghana. Pray that the published translation of the New Testament would yield abundant fruit in faith and discipleship. Also pray for the ongoing translation of the Old Testament.

Announcement Updates:

Love the Lord and Our Neighbors

As we enter 2019, there are many opportunities to focus on your spiritual life. I would encourage you to join a small group and look for ways to connect with God's people through opportunities at UALC. Our Lord wants to meet you where you are and deepen your relationship with Himself and His people. Let us all commit to loving God and loving others in a new way. Join me as we inspire and lead others to love the Lord and our neighbors in 2019. Visit ualc.org/announcements or pick up the latest issue of The Cornerstone for details.
