God's Word Accomplishes God's Purpose (Isaiah 55:1-13)

QUESTIONS FOR SMALL GROUP DISCUSSION AND PERSONAL REFLECTION:

1. Who (other than God) do you know that is most likely to keep their word? What has caused you to trust that person?
  - Is it hard or easy for you to be confident that God's Word is completely reliable?
2. What words of God have been important to you recently? Why?
3. Spend time talking as a group about "mirages" you turn to for hope, and lies you are tempted to believe. Try to identify how God's Word offers a better hope than the mirages, and talk about how it corrects the lies.
4. Practice what is commanded in Isaiah 55:6—call on God together in prayer. Seek for God to do what He promises in verses 7-13 (forgiving sin, producing flourishing, overturning curses, etc.).
